Midway Park Project

Nicole update the group on the project at Midway Park and the possibility of the Arts Commission to take part of a painting project that could involve artist community members and students in Des Moines to collaborate on a mural on the 3' x 50' wall that lines the basketball court. The RAVE Foundation, the official charitable arm of the Seattle Sounders. The RAVE Foundation has three core strategies: First, to use soccer as a vehicle to empower and inspire; Second, to remove barriers to participation on and off the field; and, Third, to support, catalyze and strengthen communities. By building small fields, the RAVE Foundation provides a place for kids to play freely, be physically active and safe, and to be inclusive stakeholders in their communities.

Guests

Casey Mclean is the Executive Director of SR3 and Greg Frankfurter is an employee veterinarian with SR3. They will be participating in the Call for Artists presentation and serve a vote for the for the selection committee.

SR3 Call for Artist Fencing Project Selections

Eight eligible applicants submitted pieces for consideration as artwork for the SR3 mesh fence that will line the perimeter of the marine mammal animal hospital that sits on the Des Moines Marina floor. Over the last weeks, judges were asked to review the submitted applications and convene at the DMAC monthly meeting to select a finalist.

After review of the presentation and the 8 submissions, the judges requested that they pick 4 finalists to ask a series of follow up questions. After the questions were answered the judges will fill out a questionnaire for each applicant selected and the final artist will be awarded the work based on the highest score.

Top 4 Finalists:

- Clare Parfitt
- Allyce Wood
- Tara Kraft
- Michele Raus

Ashley and Casey will create a list of questions to send to the above artists for final consideration.
